

COCK 'O DOODLE – DOO

Issue 13

Round 13, August 2014

Three to go

We host the match of the round this week – North vs. Saints in what is the most important game for both clubs this weekend. If North win, we're in for a finals chance; but if the Saints get us, they've got fourth spot. In fact, all four footy grades will be good games this week -2nd vs. 4th in the B's; 3 vs. 4 in the 17's; and 1 vs. 2 in the 14's. Procka's on 60 goals for the year...Is it possible to get to 100?!?!?!?

Neither team can make the four in the A1 netty so all the girls will be out for just bragging rights. J1's will have a good game with 4th vs. 5th, but the match of the day will be the A2's where third placed North take on 5th placed Saints who beat them last time they met on North's home ground.

Tonight we have a great evening's entertainment, guessing who dressed up as what starting with an 'N' or 'C'. Watch out you don't get papped again as you walk in! The social committee have done an awesome job this year on events and should be commended!

Hi all, it's Jake!
 I need to work out the numbers for our footy trip. We leave on Saturday the 4th October and come home Monday the 6th.
 We are going to Mildura so I need to work out which bus we need to take. Could you either message me on 0451180287 or comment on this post on the FB page to tell me if you're coming.
 Thanks guys

RESULTS Saturday 2nd against BBH

When there is frost on the trampoline and your tongue sticks to the post when you lick it you know it is cold (a certain twin from out Hilltown way)! That didn't deter the early netballers tho as the J5s took the court after a week off and in a hard fought game came away with a close win 9-6 with Mia Jaeschke and Charlize White getting the incentive.. The J3s also had the early start and after a little rocky patch, steadied to score regularly through Chloe Goodwin and Ash White to get a good win 26-20 with Alicia Weston and Marie Mullighan getting incentives here.. The J4s had a tough game with some controversy but fought hard to the end. The J2s were in a fight for second spot and had gone down by 2 at the last meeting. The BBH girls had the advantage of height but ours showed skill and most of all determination chasing down every loose ball and then scoring off the win with some great shooting to win by 3, 25-22 with Emma Heinjus getting the incentive. Welcome back to Emily Hinze who has been in Darwin playing cricket and returned to a baptism of fire taking on a new position against their star goalie. The J1s settled into a lovely rhythm and comfortably got over the line 37-18 with the incentive going to Charlotte Keane. The 15U girls came out strong and then a few positional changes by the coaches resulted in considerable entertainment with the famous defensive "lift" on display as well as a tricky pass against the goalpost from Callie at shooter to allow her to score (Izzy having lured the defences out of the circle at the time????) And the Jaeschke twins in goals together trying all sorts of moves never before seen on a netball court (and unlikely to be seen again). Even with all the fun they got the points 36-24 with Sarah and Emily getting the incentive for the entertainment value. The C2s were under pressure early but steadied to win 48-43 with Jo Telfer getting the incentive. The C1s had the game of the day with 1 vs 2. An injury to Emma Lukong resulted in Jodie moving back to GD again and all girls fought hard to finish with a draw, 47 -47. The top of the C1 competition is very strong but our girls are getting plenty of practice at pressure games. The B2s unfortunately went down to a strong BBH side 34-49 and the B1s had a week off so some went and joined the Nat Scatch match for a bit of fun. The A2s welcomed Sonia Pawelski back to the court and with her positive and calming influence as well as Rachel's impressive aerial defensive skills the girls are back in the winning circle 51-31. You should have seen Crossy's goal from the centre third – shoulda been worth 3 points! The A1s tried everything they could with some changes resulting in a very young team on the court at times and seeing the Huppatz twins in goals together (not as tricky as the Jaeschkes but prettier to watch) but couldn't take the points this round although Megan has obviously been taking on board the 15U advice putting in a fantastic game to get a well-earned incentive.

We now have 7 teams looking at a finals spot with the order still to be decided in some grades so keep training, get your injuries attended to and support your coaches and team as much as possible remembering that everyone has a part in getting there.

Sneaky icing up after a hard game as waterboy (thanks Trigger!)

Nick, Sam, Cooper and Jaxon – Your mum's are going to be mad!! (Thanks Mel)

Sam Baum's first Junior colts game – 13/7/14 (Thanks Mel)

Warren Baum – Netball coach extraordinaire!

Warren devised a whole training programme for the B1 and B2's the other week, he explained it, demonstrated it and critiqued his drills.

Watch out Sonya!
