SATURDAY

B1 North Clare 53 Blyth Snowtown 46 STRAIGHT INTO GRAND FINAL

A hard fought game by both sides played in good spirits. North Clare goalies shot well and with tight defence they managed to gain a 3 goal lead at quarter time. BS worked hard all over the court but North managed to slightly increase their lead at every break. North kept their composure in the final quarter with tight defence and accurate shooting and BS couldn't close the gap. Great game by all.

C1 South Clare 42 North Clare 35 PLAY THE PRELIMINARY THIS WEEK

North started strong and got a couple of early goals. South fought back with excellent defence by Kelly Chapman to be up by 3. North increased the pressure with tight defence by Lauren Quick and Amy Dreckow to make the scores equal at ½ time. With some position changes, North stepped it up with great passing by Lee Nickolai into the goalies and managed to get a 5 goal lead at three quarter time. South came out firing in the last quarter and played some brilliant netball to come away with a great win.

15U North Clare 34 South Clare 27 STRAIGHT INTO GRAND FINAL

North started well with great defence by Sarah Jaeschke and excellent attacking play. South struggled to convert with tight defence by North in the mid court. Illness resulted in some changes for North's goalies but they continued to hold their own against a determined South side. South also made changes but could not make up the difference from the 8 goal lead after the first quarter. Eliza Cook and Emily Jaeschke had a fantastic tussle in the C as did Megan Lewcock and Maddie Maynard in the goal circle. All in all an excellent game of netball.

SUNDAY

A2 North Clare 42 Blyth Snowtown 38 PLAY PRELIMINARY THIS WEEK

It was a hard and fast start from both teams evenly contested with both sides working very hard in the goal ring. Bernie Altmann from BS fed beautifully into the Cat's shooters giving them a 1 goal lead at half time. The second quarter was again even with beautiful shooting from North's Sonia Pawelski with this time North up by 1 at half time. The third quarter saw some fantastic intercepts from both teams with scores even going into the last quarter. A very tight last quarter, with the lead changing several times. BS were two goals up but North's experience shone through and they managed to take the lead with strong rebounding from Rachel Pearce.

C2 Blyth Snowtown 34 North Clare 26 KNOCKED OUT

The game started with strong defence by both teams. Many turnovers had play going up and down the court. BS made position changes at half time which picked them up in the third quarter. The Cats finished the game strongly with several good intercepts, but North Clare kept their heads up for the whole game.

J1 Min Man 20 North Clare 14 KNOCKED OUT

First quarter was tight with nerves and gusty weather creating many turnovers. AS the trams settled there were some great match-up's all over the court. The contest between Gracie Ross and Jess Hawker was a stand out with both girls battling hard. North got the upper hand in the third quarter with great defence by Jess and Kellie and finished off well by their goalies Katie and Alyssa. Min Mans stepped it up in the last quarter with good movement down the court and accurate shooting by their goalies. Good game by Mackenzie Schonberg, Lily Rantanen and Chelsea Couch.

J2 Blyth Snowtown 26 North 24 KNOCKED OUT

BS started strong with great momentum and shooting by Isabel Pratt and Kasey Bigg which resulted in an 8 goal lead at quarter time. North settled in the second quarter and worked hard to keep the margin even. North made position changes at half time that worked well but BS held strong and won in a tight finish. Lucienne Rudenklaue was excellent in defence for BS and it was a great game of high standard for young players

Medal prospects?

While we did manage to win Leading Goal kicker in each football Grade this year, will we get an Association medal Winner too???

In The A Grade, Coach Peter Cook predicts that Vater from RSMU will win the Mail Medal from our Own Nick Pearce and Southern Saints Leigh Kimpton. With the bags he kicked of 8 and 12, Nick Prokopec should poll some votes too. Even though Harry Cummings catches the eye of the ladies, did he catch enough of the umpires' eyes too? What about Jake Panoho or Tyson Pawley? Find out Monday 15th...

The B's have a steady, consistent mix of players who could all steal votes from each other. Names to be mentioned quite often at our presentations were: Siv, Dobson, Redden and Jamieson – did they impress the umpires as well as George? The leading goal kicker should poll well.

The 17's finished equal top in a closely contested season. Tommy Sullivan made people stand up and notice him after his 23 goal haul at Burra, but he needed turnovers down field to get these goals – Did Joe Wiblin contribute enough? Captain Bailey Laidlaw is hard midfielder who is always under the umpire's eye, while Tyrell Hocking has the flash skills to impress.

The 14's have some big bodies that dominated the competition all year – Tyson Francis kicked more goals than the A grade leading goal kicker – this shows some talent! George Pretlove showed some silky skills around the ground, and Grady Armfield took some good marks in attack and defence. Find out Sunday 14th

Over at the Netty Courts, I don't think the A1's won enough games to have an Argus Megalist, although Chelsea Panoho or Lauren Finey could come close to the Team of the Year. The A2 back line of Rachel Pearce and Ashleigh Edwards has dominated, and unfortunately Sonia Pawelski may have had too long on the sidelines with injury to catch up the votes. The B1's have a strong target in Renee Scott who positions and finished beautifully, and new recruit Lisa Klingner created many turnovers to give Renee this opportunity. B2's, may not have won enough, but Stacey Salter and Hayley Reid may have polled consistently. C1's finished top, with best player contributions all over the court. Coach Jodie is strong and consistent while goalies Jo Goodwin and Megan Peters have played some solid netball. In the C2's captain Toni Channon has led her team well, and another new recruit (who hasn't played netball for 7 years) has remembered her skills, and Amber Mason at Goal Attack was a stand out in lots of games. The Under 15s team is a tricky one to pick as all our girls are great players. Izzy O'Dea and Sarah Jaeschke in defence have done some specky intercepts, and Emily Jaeschke has had a consistent and improved year in the mid court. Megan Lewcock has been an awesome target in goals, and Georgia-May Hill has delivered some balls with vision well beyond her years. This grade is too close to call! J1's finished third, so will get some votes in a winning team. Jess Hawker has been a standout and had a stellar season –if I was a betting man, her odds would be 2/1. Tall Alyssa Pawelski and zippy Katie Lewcock are dark horses. The J2's again have won enough games, but there may be some vote stealing – Phoebe Helbig and Robyn Coles in the goal ring will be A grade goalies one day, and Maddi O'Dea, although short in stature, reads the play beautifully and is pretty to watch. Find out Tuesday 16th...
